

To whom it may concern:

8 of March, Prague

Dear Sir or Madam,

This letter is to serve as my formal recommendation of services that Mr. Martin Zabransky provides. He has been our landlord for a period of 4 years and during the period he delivered a full range of value added services as property management, gardening, fireplace wood supply and others.

Martin, as I rather call him due to our friendship development, has been absolutely reliable partner and had shown always a prompt and proactive reaction to all requests we might had.

I can do nothing else but hardly recommend Martin to anyone who wants to have trustable and fair landlord and thus spent a quality time while being served in one the properties Martin offers for rent.

I remain at further disposition in case other verbal references or answers to particular questions are needed.

Best regards,

Krasimir Gaydov
